Re: MUR 6021
America Coming Together

Dear Mr. Jordan:

I am writing on behalf of respondent America Coming Together ("ACT") in response to the "supplemental information" submitted to the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") by complainant Ralph Nader by his counsel, Oliver B. Hall, in a letter ("Hall Letter") dated January 7, 2009 (2010 plainly intended), and that you forwarded to me.

The Hall Letter solely alleges facts and violations concerning those he labels "the Pennsylvania Respondents," namely, "Reed Smith, LLP, its affiliated attorneys, and other Respondents named" (see page 1). Neither the Hall Letter nor either of its two attachments refers to ACT or any ACT officer, director or other agent. Rather, like much of the original complaint and complainant's other submissions to date in this Matter Under Review, the Hall Letter focuses upon Reed Smith, LLP and various alleged events in Pennsylvania during and since 2004.

ACT has already addressed the Pennsylvania-related allegations that complainant has raised earlier, and our prior response applies with equal force to the Hall Letter. Again, ACT submits that there is no reason to believe that it violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, and ACT respectfully requests that the Commission so find when it votes on the matter.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours truly,

Laurence E. Gold
